Full-time Community Organiser

Stand alongside ethnic diversity sisters - TheM wants you

Translate For Her (TheM) has been dedicated to promoting equal rights in gender and ethnicity since 2014. In recent years, we have been specifically working on women's empowerment through various co-learning community programs. As we continue our work, we are seeking a partner who shares our values and passion.

◆ Main Duties:

- Plan, implement, monitor, and evaluate the community project and related program and activities;
- Manage and develop the community with members, fostering a cross-cultural support and collaboration network;
- Perform administrative tasks and manage the organisation's social media and communications;
- Responsible for public educational and outreach projects;

👁️ We are looking for someone who:

- Demonstrates cultural and gender sensitivity.
- People-oriented.
- Passionate about community development and organisational work.
- Self-disciplined and able to work independently.
- Able to work as a team.
- Able to communicate in both English and Cantonese.
- At least 1 year of relevant work experience.

🌱 Priority will be given to individuals who meet the following criteria:

- Background in social sciences or humanities.
- Understanding of the needs of ethnically diverse communities and women.
